ITALY BUYS WHEAT

HARVEST WILL FULFILL NEED OF ALL ITALY

Italian Price Strictly Maintained Through Co-Op. Effort

ROME, June 14.—Italy's wheat crop this year will be in excess of that of 1934 and will meet all the requirements of the country. Premier Benito Mussolini received this information Thursday from the permanent wheat committee, over which he presided.

Minister of Agriculture Edmondo Rossoni recalled the 1934 harvest was 22,413,760 bushels as compared with 20,840,000 bushels in 1933. He pointed out the price of wheat had been strictly maintained because of the 1934 crop deficit, due to the close co-operation of farmers' organizations and the government.

Playing With Rifle, Girl Slays Friend

MONTREAL, June 14.—Ronald Sparrow, 34, was fatally shot at the shooting gallery of an amusement park here when his companion, Catherine Hopson, 25, accidentally pulled the trigger of a gun as the pair were awaiting change from a bill.

Mrs. Hopson, in a state of collapse, told police she picked up one of the rifles, of 22 calibre, and pointed it playfully at her friend. In some manner, however, she said she must have pulled the trigger.

An inquest will be held.

Singing Stars to Wed

The engagement of lovely Marta Eggerth to Jan Kiepura, with whom she appears in the Gaumont British picture, "My Heart is Calling," is reported. Both are singers. Mrs. Eggerth, Austrian by birth, Kiepura was born in Poland, but achieved fame in operatic circles at the State Opera in Vienna, where he met his fiancée. The romance developed in England during the making of "My Heart is Calling," and both have since been signed to appear in Hollywood films.

EXPLOSIONS ROCK REINSDORF AREA FOR SEVEN HOURS

Nazi Machine Casts Rentless Censorship On Powder Works Village Catastrophe.

REINSDORF, Germany, June 14.—A series of devastating explosions wrecked the Westphalian Anhalt Explosive Works and spread ruin throughout this munitions manufacturing village Thursday, causing deaths estimated unofficially at up to 1,000.

Flames swept furiously through the debris leveled by the first blast, and Reinnsdorf, hunting for its dead in a blazing wreckage amid the acrid smell of burning powder, resembled a bombarded town.

Seven hours after the first blast, minor explosions were still heard and fires still smoldered while workers labored frantically to control the flames and all accounts mentioned known to military rule were put into force.

The burgomaster of Reinnsdorf, casting the explosion "The greatest catastrophe in central Germany's history," estimated "2,000 killed" is too many, but 1,000 would be more accurate.

Picked Nazi guards surrounded the town for two miles and arrested any foreigner to the area who happened to get by the closely-drawn lines.

A strict censorship was clamped down by the secret police and at last half a dozen foreign correspondents were detained for daring to seek official information.

Flames raged through the stricken village last night, their fury fed by huge tanks of oil used by the munitions factories. Nazi authorities, fearing further catastrophes, ordered the entire village evacuated.

Windows of buildings 15 miles away were shattered, while an area estimated at 675 square miles was rocked.

Last night long lines of stretcher-bearers braved death in the flaming wreckage to bring out the dead and injured.

Automobiles, trucks, motorcycles, bicycles and horse-drawn vehicles jammed highways leading from Reinnsdorf carrying the victims to hospitals at Wittenberg, about an hour away.

HEARTRENDING SCENES
That time the blast was so great everybody seemed to be fleeing. There were many scenes that rent my heart—mothers and children crying and wringing their hands and screaming to be let into the town to try to rescue some loved one.

I think an estimate of 2,000 killed is too many, but 1,000 would be more accurate.

I never want to go through this again.

Many witnessed many scenes of heroism. Among the last to leave the town were the telephone operators. Reinnsdorf seemed almost abandoned to further shocks.

It is getting on in the night and I cannot breathe. Things look much better, the scene was a true one. Heil Hitler!

CITIZENS DONATE TO RELEASE PRISONERS
SASKATOON, June 14.—Public sympathy for the 22 men arrested here Wednesday night when, on their way to join the "onto-Ottawa" trek of British Columbia, Alberta, relief strikers, took tangible form last night as a public gathering of some 200 persons to secure the freedom of the 22 men who went to jail yesterday morning.

The movement was started by a man who previously ran for alderman here and who is known to his friends as "Red" McLeod. It is anticipated that $120 is needed to obtain the release of the men and it is believed this amount will be raised by noon.

Twenty dollars were subscribed within an hour of opening the list, donations being given by prominent citizens.

CATFISH EATS WATCH, OWNER GETS IT BACK
LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 14.—A watch that spent several weeks in the stomach of a six-pound catfish, has been returned to its owner, Patrolman William J. Lowman, said of the Louisville police department.

Lowman said that he lost the watch while fishing some weeks ago.

The watch was found in the fish by Arthur G. Weiser who recently caught it on a fishing expedition.

CAT LOST HER KITTENS
SO TENDS THREE PUPS
CHARDON, Ohio, June 14.—It's a strange feline, but it's coming along fine.

On the same day, Totty, toy bulldog owned by F. W. Boorn of Middlefield, near here, gave birth to six puppies, and Boorn's pet tiger cat became the mother of six kittens.

Totty and three of the pups died. All six kittens died. Now the cat is mothering the three pups. Mrs. Boorn, the attending nurse, from the youngsters from a bottle every three hours. She reports "mother and children doing well."

RAIL CHIEFS TO PLEAD FOR DISPERSAL

Will Offer to Negotiate for Homeward Trip Of "Marchers"

MOOSE JAW, Sask., June 14.—Officials of the four railway companies, the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific, will present a statement to the leaders of the B.C. and Alberta strike "marchers" at Regina today warning them not to unlawfully board trains of either company, and requesting them to disperse and return to their respective homes.

The statement from the railway companies in its final paragraph says, "If you will do this the railway companies will take up with the Dominion authorities the question of providing some means by which you can so return."

FEELING BETTER

Premier Bennett made a two hour speech on Wednesday to tell how disappointed he was that the Liberal opposition would not criticize him for supporting the wheat market.
Aside from making that plain, two other facts emerged from the welter of words. One is that the Government has on hand some hundred million bushels of wheat that it is making no discoverable attempt to get markets for.
The other, and far more important, is the disclosure is that the Premier's health is a good deal better than has been supposed, since he spoke for a couple of hours without any serious results.

WHY SCRIP?

Mr. Coote's bill to cut clause 91 out of the Bank Act, and leave provinces or municipalities free to issue money substitutes, may be predestined fate. The Prime Minister, presented its doom, as he was sure to do. But he gave the sponsor plenty of room for a comeback when he said municipal scrip "would turn the monetary system of the country into a farce."

Scrip couldn't do that; for the reason that the monetary system is a farce already. If it wasn't, there would be no demand for scrip.
The world wants scrip because it is a farce.
It is only wanted where there is no money
available, despite the presence of real wealth.
Monetary wealth and the scrip schemes will be forgotten.

A TALE OF TWO CITIES

When the camp deserters were camping in Vancouver, Ottawa informed Premier Patten that he was job to deal with them and that if he wanted any federal help he would have to ask for it. Which was a clear and correct statement of the procedure laid down by the constitution, whatever may be thought about the desirability of short-cutting procedure in conditions of emergency.
But when these men arrived in Saskatchewan, Ottawa instructed the Mounted Police to stop them at Regina and send them to the camps in that city. It was a clear and correct statement of the procedure laid down
by any call for help from the Premier of Saskatchewan, and against his very definite and emphatic protest.
Perhaps legal ingenuity can find some trace of consistency between Ottawa's attitude toward the marchers while they were in British Columbia and its attitude toward them when they got to Saskatchewan; but the lay mind finds no consistency. It seems to be as hard to find as hard to find the province with common sense has played any part in Ottawa's dealing with the matter.

LET THE GOOD WORK GO ON

Premier Hepburn of Ontario is not popular with the financial interests. If he had any doubt on the matter it was dispelled when he offered a $150,000 bond issue on Wednesday.
Representatives of most of Toronto's bond houses were on hand when the box was opened, but there wasn't a tender in it. None of them
made an offer.
That of course was their business, and their right. They did not have to buy Ontario bonds.
The terms did not suit them, and they were like the Premier. If they were in his privilege to refuse to bid. The way they exercised the privilege showed they held themselves under obligation to supply the province with money unless they could make a satisfactory profit by doing so.

It showed something else. It showed the danger of leaving to private parties the power to prevent a province getting money it needs
for satisfying debts and carrying on its work,
if they choose to "gang up" on the province, it can't sell its bonds. As matters stand, a dozen powerful corporations can by collusion block
the sale of an issue of bonds of any province, and compel it to either pay hold-up rates of interest or resort to other means of raising the money.

That power of veto will have to be taken out of private hands and the provinces supplied with money at cost. The only way in which money is created. The proceedings at Toronto show how urgent it is that this be done. The "captains" of finance are forcing the monetary reform they don't want.

TAXPAYERS IN ACTION

With Vancouver 5 per cent bonds selling in the market at 80, Vancouver people on Wednesday bought $500,000 worth of the new issue of 3 per cent "baby bonds" which the city council offered as a means to get cheap money for a construction program.

It is a safe guess that the bonds were not bought by banks, trust companies, brokerage firms, or people who buy bonds simply as a way of investing money profitably. As an investment the new bonds are not attractive. The buyer could make more money by buying higher-rated bonds at the market price. But the "baby bonds" sold at the 80 price. Clearly, the buyers had something else in mind than getting the largest possible return on their investment. The only other motive could have been a desire to help the city
finance construction work at low cost, give
employment to idle men, and stimulate business by an injection of new buying power. That beyond any reasonable question, explains why
the bonds were sold.

The moral is plain, but it probably won't be
heeded in quarters where it should get attention. It is easy, congenial, and customary, for
the brokers' association and those generally
who are interested in keeping money scarce and
dear, to denounce Mayor McGee as a demagogue, a politician, and a hypocrite, and they
seem to get a good deal of satisfaction in doing

Poems That Live

THE CRUST OF BREAD
I must not turn upon the floor
The crust I cannot eat.
For my little hungry ones
Would think it quite a treat
My parents labor very hard
To make the crust whole and good,
Then I must never waste a bit
That would do others good.
For still we make makes useful want,
And I may live to say,
Oh how I wish I had the bread
That makes a hungry man's —Unknown.

The Passing Show

By J. S. COWPER

There must be a difference between East and West.

Out at Vancouver, where the unemployed
of nine provinces congregated, the citizen supported tag days for the men and expressed sympathy with them in their reasonable demand
to be given useful work at wages.

As they travel eastwards
they could have a desire to help the city
finance construction work at low cost, give
employment to idle men, and stimulate business by an injection of new buying power. That
beyond any reasonable question, explains why
the bonds were sold.

The moral is plain, but it probably won't be
heeded in quarters where it should get attention. It is easy, congenial, and customary, for
the brokers' association and those generally
who are interested in keeping money scarce and
dear, to denounce Mayor McGee as a demagogue, a politician, and a hypocrite, and they
seem to get a good deal of satisfaction in doing
it.

But a point they appear to have overlooked
is that the Mayor happens to have behind him
the solid body of Vancouver taxpayers, who are determined that their city shall not be held to ransom. That is something the controllers of money would do well to take into account, for in the minds of the taxpayers of Vancouver is also in the minds of the taxpayers of every other Canadian city from coast to coast.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
QUESTION: The editor writes: "I have a severe pain in my back that has been the shoulders, toward the right side. It is more painful at night and keeps me from sleeping. Also have large brown spots on my neck; is this liver trouble?"

ANSWER: The location of your pain is indicative of liver or gall bladder trouble, but, of course, it could be due to some other cause.
I would be pleased to see you for a complete
physical examination.

QUESTION: Mrs. A. W. writes: "My little son is a year and a half old and has been sick four years. The doctors say it is not her lungs.
I would like to know what causes it, and what would cure it."

ANSWER: Your child is probably suffering from some kind of catarrhal disorder of the upper throat or nose. Try having her eliminate all highly starchy foods, sugars and fats for a few weeks and see if she does not improve.
The article for children called "Save the Tonics"
outlines dietetic directions suitable for her.
I will be pleased to see you for a complete
physical examination.

QUESTION: Manitoba Y. writes: "Do you
class butter as a contaminating food?"

ANSWER: When you compare the amount of butter used with the amount of other foods
you will see that you use only a small amount of butter each day. The fact that so little is eaten, comparatively speaking, it has no effect in producing constipation. I consider butter as entirely wholesome and recommend it as the best seasoning for cooked nonstarchy vegetables. If you find that a little butter added just as the vegetable is being served makes a more delicious and satisfying meal, by all means keep on using the butter and worrying about whether it is going to encourage sluggish elimination.

QUESTION: Miss Thelma H. writes: "I like to use Melba Toast with milk and wondered if this combination is all right?"

ANSWER: You will find this combination palatable and it is permissible to have the milk either cold or warm, whichever you prefer.

to Health," is now on hand at The Bulletin. A copy will be mailed upon receipt of $1.00 plus

June Meals Are Easy, Interesting to Plan

By MARY E. DAGUE

Come June and I could with all I had to do in the world be in a hammock on a porch fragrant with the smell of climbing roses.

Quick to make, delightful to look at, rich to the taste—this vanilla wafer strawberry ice box cake.

and honey-suckle and eat media of strawberries, corn on the cob, crisp green beans and sweet garden peas, picked out twenty minutes before being plunged into the pot for my delectation.

I can't have all my wish but at least I can give thanks for one mouth in which there is such a profusion of luscious things to eat that I need never once voice the age-old cry of housekeepers: "What on earth shall I have for dinner today?"

Lamb and veal are at their best now, too. Even inexpensive cuts can be worked up in most leaves. Curry of veal with rice is an inexpensive dish that wears much of its charm to its unusual appearance. Serve it with French fried carrots, tomato and cucumber salad and strawberry ice box cake.

CURRY OF VEAL WITH RICE
One pound lean veal, 1 tablespoon curry powder, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 onion, 1 fresh tomato, 1 banana, 1/2 lemon, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Cut meat in small cubes. Melt butter in stew pan and when it bubbles add onion cut in thin slices and curry powder. Stir with a fork and cook five minutes. Add meat and brown quickly. Add boiling water to cover and simmer one hour adding more water, if necessary. Add salt, juice of lemon, banana, cut in thin slices and coconut infusion. Simmer until tender and serve on a hot platter garnished with sliced rice. To make coconut infusion grate in nut and let stand in one cup boiling water for twenty minutes.

Stir through cheesecloth, squeezing coconut as dry as possible. Two cups whipping cream, 1/2 cup powdered sugar, vanilla flavoring, 2 cups strawberries, 20 large vanilla wafers.

Quick to make, delightful to look at, rich to the taste—this vanilla wafer strawberry ice box cake.

Add sugar, flavoring extract and cream from any readers' inquiries with their questions to add-dressed. Sent stamped on envelopes.

SANDWICHES

A tonic—there has many advantages over the liquid generally used, which is a real tonic for your hair and gives you a dandruff-free scalp. Tonic which can also be used on the face and makes the hair behave. Highly effective, we assure you, and quick-drying, too.

LEONARDO DA VINCI

WAS NOT AS GREAT AN ARTIST AS HE WAS A SCIENTIST

Leonardo da Vinci was one of the most versatile men of all known history. His work as an artist is well known, but his scientific theories were even greater. He designed airplanes and worked out the theory of aviation. He designed the helicopter, but it was not until the modern age of invention and discovery that his ideas were put into practice. He was a great naturalist and philosopher. He wrote many of the theories of the modern age on that subject and he was a great naturalist.

Good Taste

By Francine Marcol

Do not try to furnish a cottage with utilitarian period furniture suitable only for a mansion, such as French or Italian Renaissance pieces that demand elaborate settings. Velours or brocade draperies and tapestries are likewise out of place in a modest house of this type. Furniture of simple design, such as early American, would be much more suitable, as also would chairs rather than "hangings" of a formal nature.

Miss Marcol will promptly mail personal answers to questions from any readers' inquiries with their questions to add-dressed. Sent stamped on envelopes.

SANDWICHES

Chopped dandelion mixed with chopped scallion ginger and cream make a good filling for white or egg bread or sandwiches. This combination is a bit "fancy" for the lunch boxes.

Artisan wells are being used with great success in Florida to grow in irrigating their fields.

SCOLLARD LOST FORTUNE ONCE AGAIN IS AIRED

Confidential Papers Found When Safe Vault Drilled

VANCOUVER, June 14.—Attorneys for the heirs of Mrs. Sarah E. Smith-Scollard, wealthy eccentric, took another step in a series of legal actions against Mrs. Sadie R. Brown, widow of Reese Brown, of Yakima, Wash., Thursday, when the court ordered a safely deposited box opened and it was found to contain confidential papers of the mysterious Mrs. Smith-Scollard.

INFLUENCE CLAIMED
Counsel for the heirs, Wilmon Tucker and Denton Burdick of Seattle, have contended flatly in Seattle that Brown gained an influence over the eccentric old lady, appropriated her fortune and caused her to hide in Montreal and evade income tax charges, and that the Brown heirs have concealed the "fortune." Mrs. Brown testified in Seattle that there was no fortune. Her fortune formerly was estimated at $100,000.

An order of the court, this deposit box was drilled yesterday, and found to contain quantities of Mrs. Smith-Scollard's papers, including, court officials said, some naming Brown. The names of the other

Girls' Baseball League Will Meet On Monday Night

A general meeting of the City Girls' Baseball League will be held in the Civic block Monday evening to re-arrange the season's schedule, which is compelled to be changed due to the Edmonton withdrawal from the league, and the resignation of Treasurer Miss Anne Mack. Edmonds' protest against the Orange Crush was withdrawn at an executive meeting Wednesday evening. A new treasurer and team will be named at Monday's meeting to replace the vacancies.

SCHUMACHER AND PARMELEE WIN GAMES AGAINST REDS

Gain Lead in National by Winning 7-2 and 9-1 Scores

NEW YORK, June 11.—New York Giants pulled the "Hal Schumacher trick"—which is becoming a time-honored one on the Cincinnati Reds to win a double-header 7-2 and 9-1 and gain the lead in their series.

Manager Bill Terry found Schumacher in against his favorite victims in the first encounter and the big St. Lawrence University graduate pitched four hit ball for his 11th major league triumph over the Reds without a loss.

The Giants collected a total of 22 hits, including Joe Mauer's 11th circuit swat of the season which tied him with Mel Ott for the National League lead in the opener and one by Travis Jackson in the second game.

Osborne Issues Fight Challenge
PEACE RIVER, June 11.—R.D. Osborne of Fairview issued a challenge at the Alouette-Cameron hotel to a fight on Wednesday night to take Alouette on at the Peace River sports in a 10-round encounter. The terms of the challenge were that if Alouette won he would take him on but if Cameron won he would take both of them on for five rounds each. As Alouette gave Cameron a complete working over by knocking him down twice with hard lefts and administered a lot of punishment until his seconds threw in the towel in the eighth round the promoters of the Peace River sports will have the Osborne-Alouette bout on a drawing card and arrangements are already under way to complete arrangements.

Chicago White Sox Rally To Defeat Senators by 10-6

CHICAGO, June 11.—Concentrating their fire on one big inning, Chicago White Sox Thursday pounded some nine runs in the fifth frame to defeat Washington 10-6 for the third straight time.

Zeke Bonura's 11th homer with two on and a double by Fletcher Vernon Kennedy, were among the ingredients that chased Irv Hadley to the showers and gave Kennedy his second 1935 victory.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

—By William Ferguson

THE Meadow Mouse population, if given a second period of 10 years, with each pair duplicating the record of the original pair, would amount to about four hundred billion mice for every square yard of land surface.

NEXT: Why is 1935 the oddest years since 1798?
